

I am opposed both to this ruling and the way the FCC has tried to push this decision through without adequately informing the public about the consequences for freedom of speech, objective journalism and the quality of programming. I am outraged by the amount of access large corporate interests have had to the members of the commission, while the public at large is kept in the dark.